Jewish war memorial

duplicate

These striking photographs are of a memorial to 6,000,000 Jews who died in Europe during the Second World War. The memorial is nearing completion in the West Park Cemetery, Johannesburg. The work of the South African sculptor Hermann Wald, the memorial takes the shape of three pairs of hands each holding a ram's horn, which is the Jewish ritual trumpet. The centre piece (below) into which is built an eternal flame, represents, in Hebrew lettering, the commandment—"Thou Shalt Not Kill."
