

HISTORIC KIMBERLEY DRAWS THOUSANDS OF VISITORS

THOUSANDS of visitors from all over the world visit Kimberley every year. Within a few weeks, as soon as the schools break up for the winter vacation, thousands of motorists from the Western Cape will be passing through Kimberley on their way to the Northern Cape, to the Transvaal, Natal and other destinations in the Republic's winter sunbelt.

One of the most romantic of cities, Kimberley has many links with the past that are a constant source of fascination and interest for tourists and historians alike.

On Tuesday, the Cape Times will publish a special feature illustrating Kimberley's growth and its attractions for the visitor.

Photos by Harry Tyler, Cape Times Staff Photographer.

DIGGERS' MEMORIAL: Dominating the gardens at the civic centre is the Diggers' Memorial, a tribute in bronze to the men who pioneered the diamond industry that brought riches to South Africa.