

Medal for maize trophy winners

The South African sculptor, Mr. Herman Wald, with a clay model of a medal which will be presented to individual farmers registering the highest mealie production in the Eastern Transvaal and Western Transvaal. The Star is awarding floating trophies to district farmers' unions in the Eastern Transvaal and Western Transvaal respectively for the highest maize production. Medals in gold, silver and bronze will be awarded yearly to the three individual farmers in the respective areas registering the highest yields.