

THE OFFERING OF ISAAC. A striking piece of sculpture, showing imagination disciplined to design by Herman Wald, included in an exhibition of recent works in the artist's new studio in Parktown North. Wald, who used to have a studio in Pritchard Street, has built this studio at the foot of a large garden with windows giving him a wide view to the north. He has been working on it for the past four months, and opened it with a show of bronzes, carvings and ceramics on Saturday night. "The Offering of Isaac" was singled out for comment by American critics when shown in New York two years ago.

