THE STAR JOHANNESBURG

Jewish memorial unveiled

more than 4,000 Jews gathered at the West Park Cemetery, Johannesburg, yesterday for the unveiling of Herman Wald's memorial to the 6,000,000 Jewish victims of Nazism in Europe. The memorial is in the form of six huge hands, each holding a 10ft. high ram's horn (shofar), which in Biblical days was used to summon the people to solemn gatherings. Survivors of concentration camps formed a guard of honour as an eternal flame in the centre of the monument was kindled.
