RABBI NUROCK'S STIRRING CALL TO JOHANNESBURG JEWRY

A large gathering of Johannesburg Jewry on Sunday afternoon listened to a stirring call from Rabbi M. Nurock, who urged them not to forget what the Germans did to the Jewish people (see Story on Page 2).

- In Tel Aviv, 2,000 invalids and veterans of the Nazi holocaust marched through Dizengoff Street in a silent parade. They carried torches and banners with the one word: "Remember!" Passers-by stood at attention.

- In South Africa country-wide meetings were held in commemoration of the six million.
